Favorite count of dog stage over time

Pupper had a strong peak in may 2017, but has since declined over time. Floofer seems to have gone by the years unnoticed. Doggo on the other hand has risen over the years, with a significant peak in June 2016, but overall has not seen much popularity. Pupper however has been present throughout the time period.

Does having a favorite influence retweets?

It most certainly does.
The correlation is a strong 0.91.

Ideally if you like something it would probably be best to share by retweeting.
